(i) During the term of this Agreement, Seller grants to Buyer, and Buyer accepts from Seller, a non-exclusive, non-transferable, paid-up license to use the Software in conjunction with the Products that Buyer will have purchased from Seller. Buyer is licensed to (a) modify the Software for the sole purpose of integrating the Software with Buyer's application and merge the Software with other programs, and (b) copy the Software for Buyer's internal use and to distribute the Software to Buyer's customers provided that Buyer enters into an agreement with such customers to treat the Software as confidential and proprietary and to limit the use of the Software to Products sold to such customers by Buyer.

(ii) No right or license shall be implied by estoppel or otherwise, other than the rights and license expressly granted in this Agreement. All ownership rights, title, and interest in the Software are and shall remain with Seller subject, however, only to the license specifically granted herein.

(iii) Any and all trademarks and trade names which Seller uses in connection with the license granted hereunder are and shall remain the exclusive property of Seller. (iv) Buyer agrees that it will not copy, modify or reproduce the Software in any way except as provided for herein. Buyer agrees to notify Seller promptly of any circumstances of which Buyer has knowledge relating to any unauthorized use or copying of the Software by any person or entity not authorized to do so. Buyer agrees to take, at Buyer's expense, but at Seller's option and under Seller control and discretion, any legal action necessary to prevent or stop the unauthorized use of the Software by any third party or entity who or which has accessed the Software due in substantial part to Buyer's fault or negligence.

(v) If Buyer fails to observe any of the foregoing conditions and limitations upon the use of the Software, Seller shall have the right to terminate this license, in addition to its other remedies under law and equity.
